GT Line Tool Case ATOMIK NEO M PEL (Available Soon)

EAN 8024482193670

New energy for professional protection

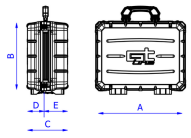

Atomik Neo M reinterprets a GT Line icon with a modern design and advanced functional solutions. The larger base, new bumpers, and ergonomic two-tone handle enhance comfort, capacity, and durability.

The key lock and RFID-ready feature complete a case designed for today's professional security.

Features

• Panels: 1 tool panel with elastic straps on both sides; 1 tool panel with elastic straps on one side
• Two-tone ergonomic handle: designed to ensure a comfortable and secure grip even during prolonged transport.
• Double key locks: ensure reliable protection of the contents in any professional context.
• High-capacity base: optimized structure to accommodate a greater number of tools and equipment.
• New protective bumpers: increase impact resistance and protect the case in the most demanding conditions of use.
• RFID-ready: compatible with identification and tracking systems.
• Integrated nameplate: allows immediate and professional identification.
• Hinges with integrated lid support: ensure stability and control during opening.
• AirTag holder (Apple): dedicated compartment for tracking devices.
